The offender has not complied with the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number Nature of Noncompliance

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 | Rublowitz released from custody on March 9, 2021. At the time of his meeting with the probation office, it was discovered that he opened five new lines of credit. The lines of credit included Ashley Home Furniture, in the amount of $979.56; Best Buy, in the amount of $972.06; Big Lots, in the amount of $1,249.57; Credit One, in the amount of $360.53; and Capital One, in the amount of $95.60. The total of all new opened lines of credit is $3,657.32. This occurred while the individual was still under the jurisdiction of the Bureau of Prisons, via the halfway house. |

U.S. Probation Officer Action:

The probation officer instructed Rublowitz to immediately discontinue the use of the new lines of credit. Due to the conduct occurring prior to release from the Bureau of Prisons, the U.S. Probation Office sees no accountable violation. Mr. Rublowitz has been warned that similar conduct will be considered a violation of his supervised release. At this time, we will continue to monitor the individual and we are not requesting Court intervention. Respectfully, we offer submission of this Report on Offender Under Supervision for informational purposes.
